AYER'S

Hair vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, feeded or gray hair to a natural, rich-brown color, or deep black, as may be derived. By its case light or red last may be derived. By its case light or red last may be derivened, thin fhair thickconed, and haldness often, though not always, chreed.

At checks, falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It persons and certa seur and dandruff, and heals nearly every, dicease, possible to the scalp. As a Lasdica, Hair Drossing, the Vicon is mesqualled; it contains neither oil nor dys, renders the hair soft, glossy, and sikes he appearance, and insting portune.

Mr. C. P. Batchen writes from Mrdy, O.
